Autumn has well and truly arrived; it has been a particularly cold and windy day today. As the weather changes, please make sure your child is warmly dressed, particularly since the school building continues to be well-ventilated and quite chilly. Reception started their phonics and maths sessions this week. They also had their first PE lesson on Thursday and enjoyed exploring movement pretending to ride a bike. Year 1 has been learning to write some features of non-fiction writing, including labels and lists, using ideas from the story 'Not a Stick'. In maths they have enjoyed learning to use new equipment and models to discuss place value within 10. The first spellings have now been handed out ready for a short test on Wednesday morning. In Computing the children have started using the laptops for their 'Who am I' project. They would all benefit from practicing mouse skills at home! Year 2 have been learning how to write a letter. In maths they have been partitioning numbers up to 100 into tens and ones. In topic they have been locating hot and cold climates in the world and identifying human and physical features. On Wednesday Year 1 and 2 had a jacket potato lunch which was a huge success. We hope to introduce more hot lunches from next week. On a very serious note: I hope you have all seen and read my letter this morning about parking safely and considerately. I would also like to remind all parent to respect the need for social distancing by not chatting near cars and on the pavement after dropping off your child. Please leave immediately, thus freeing up spaces for subsequent parents. Thank you for your understanding and support.

I hope you have a wonderful weekend!
