It was such a beautiful day on Saturday, cold and sunny, the perfect day for a Christmas Fair. Another successful PTA event, a big thank you to everyone that helped and everyone that visited. What a wonderful way to start the Christmas season. It's beginning to look (and sound) a lot like Christmas at Dropmore. The classrooms have been decorated, and the carol practices and nativity rehearsals have been running smoothly. The children can't wait to perform to you over the next few days and I hope to welcome many of you, both at St Anne's Church on Sunday and at school on Monday or Tuesday.

A lot of other work has been done as well of course. On Wednesday Year 1 and Year 2 had their last PE lesson with Joanne. She has been teaching the children tag rugby. As it was so cold on Wednesday we had a dance lesson in the hall that would link nicely to tag rugby: the Haka. The children loved learning about the Haka and performing it. At the end of the session they presented a Thank You card to Joanne. To help them understand 'less than' in Maths, the Reception children read the story of Pete the Cat and his Four Groovy Buttons. They made Pete and choose his groovy buttons to wear.

Reception have also been listening to the story of Stick Man and made their very own stick men. We have such an exciting and busy week ahead, with something different happening every day. Don't forget the Christmas Jumper Day on Friday. The children can come to school dressed in their favourite Christmas jumper for £1. All money raised will go to 'Save the Children', a worthwhile charity.

But first things first: don't forget our Carol Service on Sunday. I hope to see you there!
